

Cope program manager named to Workforce Board

Michelle Laymon, Program Manager of Cope Family Center's family economic success, and drop-in and emergency aid programs, has been selected to serve as a member of the Napa Workforce Board.

Board members are appointed by the Napa County Board of Supervisors for a term of two years.

Formerly Napa County Workforce Investment, Napa Workforce provides employment and training resources to job seekers, offering career information and planning, online listing of job openings, online resume services, skills assessment, workshops, job placement assistance, and more through its Employment Network Center on Imperial Way in Napa.

Laymon launched Cope's Family Economic Success Program in 2003 while serving as drop-in and emergency aid program manager.
